Lips, KAN 11 (Broadcast) Tel Aviv

JUL 2025 — DEC 2025

Editor

An official selection of Doc Aviv Film Festival. The story of “Lips”, a wedding band from Sderot — the first to dare place the Moroccan language at center stage, bringing a new voice to wedding halls and, eventually, to the Israeli music industry as a whole. The band recorded six albums before disbanding in 1998 following internal conflicts. Thirty years later, Haim Uliel, the band’s lead singer, loses both his son and his brother — the band’s drummer — within a short period of time. In the aftermath of this personal tragedy, he realizes that the only way to rebuild his life is to reunite the band and bring “Lips” back to life.

Rule of Stone, Filmoption International, Montréal

JUL 2022 — OCT 2024

Co-Editor

a documentary feature film, 85 min

At the core of this documentary is the story of Jerusalem Stone, the material decreed by law to give the city of Jerusalem its singular aesthetic quality. With it, architecture became a weapon in a silent, but extraordinarily effective colonization and dispossession process by design. “This was architecture with a message: ‘We are Jerusalem!’” explains one Israeli urban planner, who now wonders why she once blindly complied. Official selection at IDFA Film Festival.
